

The degree program Bachelor of Fashion Design, takes into consideration the new technological developments in the fashion industry. It will run for a minimum of eight semesters and a maximum of 24 semesters from the date of registration.

Possible Career Opportunities

The graduates of Fashion Design will pursue any of the following career paths: Fashion designer in the public and private sector, accounts executives, art directors local and international, freelance fashion designers, consultants, entrepreneurs and researchers.