

The proposed degree program Bachelor of Interior Design, takes into consideration the new technological developments in the building industry. It will run for a minimum of eight semesters and a maximum of 24 semesters from the date of registration.

Possible Career Opportunities

The graduates of Interior Design will pursue any of the following career paths: Interior designers in the public and private sector, interior designers in the building industry, conceptual design, freelancers, consultants, entrepreneurs creating employment by starting and expanding interior design enterprises researchers